

2P94 07:31 Portsmouth Harbour - London Waterloo

A scenario for DTG's Portsmouth Direct Line: London Waterloo - Portsmouth

Drive the entirety of 2P94, the 07:31 from Portsmouth Harbour to London Waterloo stopper (operated by South Western Railway) on a pleasant Spring morning in 2020. With it being Rush Hour, and the tail end of Rush Hour, delays are expected!

This scenario was one of the most difficult to make, due to the amount of traffic on the PDL and South Western Mainline, particularly between Woking and London Waterloo. The scenario editor dispatcher was difficult to work with on this, but I believe I did the best I could. There are just a couple of AI trains omitted on the Waterloo end, to save on errors and FPS, but there is still plenty of traffic. I would recommend saving regularly*, and reloading just in case you do get any errors.

Saving at Guildford, at least. If you get an AI collision, it would be between here and Woking. Simply reloading the scenario from the Guildford save should fix this.
